

INTRODUCTION

Darren Marton's story of once being an exceptional gifted athlete, then turned heavily drug dependent, now has people listening. After traveling down a road which most all too often disappear, his life now is a shining example of what can be achieved with sheer determination.

Darren communicates encouragement, both with his presence and personality, and his wealth of real life experiences result in a powerful, moving and inspiring presentation that leaves his audience truly inspired.

AUDI VISUAL & STAGING REQUIREMENTS

Sound - Presentation Visuals

- Darren prefers to speak with a lapel microphone or headset, however, this is not necessary.
- If there is a sound technician on site, please advise when and where they will be available to perform a sound and audio visual check with microphone and slides.
- Darren usually presents with PowerPoint.
- Darren can supply his own laptop, please advise if you would prefer and advise if you have the appropriate cable for connection.
